LOCAL DENTIST, DR. JEANETTE KERN ATTENDS WORLD'S LARGEST CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM FOR COSMETIC DENTISTRY

May 17, 2010. Monterey, CA. - Dr. Jeanette Kern recently attended the world's largest continuing education program for cosmetic dentistry; the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry's (AACD) 26th Annual Scientific Session in Texas. The AACD is the largest international dental organization. It is dedicated to advancing excellence in the art and science of cosmetic dentistry through responsible aesthetics. Dr. Kern has achieved sustaining member status with the AACD.

"Contemporary cosmetic dentistry is a key element in the comprehensive approach to total oral health care because it combines art and science to achieve optimal dental function, health, and aesthetics," said Dr. Jeanette Kern. "The annual AACD scientific session is the world's premier venue for the in-depth training necessary to provide excellent solutions in cosmetic dentistry and ultimately provide the best care to patients in our community."

Dr. Jeanette Kern is a recognized expert in aesthetic and general dentistry. She has trained with world-renowned dental instructors at the prestigious Rosenthal Institute at New York University and the acclaimed Pacific Aesthetic Continuum at University of the Pacific. Prior to becoming a dentist, Dr. Kern worked for 10 years as a dental hygienist and taught Hygiene at the University of California at Los Angeles and the University of Southern California. She graduated at the top of her class from the School of Dentistry at UCLA and went on to teach other dentists at UCLA from 1989 - 1995. Dr. Kern lectures to dentists throughout California, and participates in dental study groups. Dr. Kern is committed to continuing education and always utilizes the latest techniques to make treatment comfortable and easy.
